

NOMINATION FORM 2021 ABSL AWARDS

Colleague of the Year Award

In every company, there are people whose positive energy is contagious, who mobilize resources and make things happen, who are mentors, always volunteering and open to embark in new challenges.

This award aims to recognise people who are willing to go the extra mile in supporting their colleagues and teams achieving results and perform better. They are the ones who hold strong personal values, have a natural preference to help and mentor others, a can-do attitude, and the ability to create the right environment for the people to be the best versions of themselves. Last year they had a more difficult role, maintaining the spirit, teaching us new things, creating real communities around them and helping the others to overcome the challenges of this pandemic.
